

CHÂTEAU
EDMUS
SAINT EMILION GRAND CRU

2007 VINTAGE

“First harvest for the new owners of this vineyard which they named after their contracted names. The land is part of the Lescours vines in the midst of the sands and gravels of Saint Sulpice de Faleyrens. The tasting starts with a pleasant black cherry colour. The nose expresses itself well already, still dominated by the oak barrel but with a pretty fruit in the background. Warm from the start, the palate then develops fresh tannins which will quickly evolve thus allowing this bottle to be soon enjoyed with roasted chicken or grilled meat.”

Commentary on the 2007

2007 is the first vintage of Chateau Edmus. The year was climatically difficult with a cold summer, especially in August, offset by a sunny September which allowed a late harvest. The careful winemaking has a very good expression of fruit. Citing the tasting notes...Stephane Crus and Passions, “Vanilla nose with hints of toasted brioche and more. It trends towards fruity blackberries and blueberries with a little strawberry. The finish is slightly peppery.”
